

TRANSPORTATION INFORMATION SOURCES

Obtaining Information

Information for the template can be obtained from a variety of local resources. We suggest that you consider the possibility of including volunteers to do some of the information gathering. Some possible sources of information are:

Government Service Organizations

- Department of Transportation
- Area Agency on Aging
- Department of Parks and Recreation
- Department of Motor Vehicles
- Welfare Department

Transportation Organizations

- Automobile Clubs
- Taxi Companies
- Limousine Companies

Social Service Organizations

- Councils on Aging
- Employment Centers
- Rehabilitation Programs
- Independent living centers
- Community Centers

Community volunteer groups

- Junior League
- Lion's Club
- Kiwanis Club

Senior volunteer groups

- Retired Senior Volunteer Program
- Interfaith Groups

Churches/Synagogues

Special Senior or Disability Housing

- Retirement communities
- Assisted living facilities
- Nursing homes

Medical Facilities

- Hospitals
- Clinics
- Health care practices
- Adult Day Services Programs

Businesses

- Shopping malls
- Grocery stores

Accessing Information

To begin your search, the (internet or telephone book) yellow pages is the quickest and easiest source for finding local transportation options. Some categories within the yellow pages you might consider in your search include:

Bus Transportation

Charter Services

Limousine Services

Local Passenger Transportation

Medical Transportation

Passenger Transport Arrangement

Private Transportation

Public Transportation

Ride Sharing

Taxicabs & Transportation Service

Transit Lines

Transportation

Transportation Companies

Transportation Contract Service

Transportation for people with disabilities*

Transportation for older adults*

Transportation Lines

Transportation Medical Non-Emergency

Transportation Service - Special Needs

*Although outdated, “transportation for handicapped” and “transportation for elderly” may also be helpful as search terms.